

RE : Swee Hong's First Anniversary Dinner & Dance 2013

There is no better way to build our relationships with one another than an event filled with laughter, dancing and an enthralled Swee Hong staff.

On the 17 May 2013, Swee Hong Limited had their First Anniversary Dinner and Dance which was held at the Holiday Inn Singapore Orchard City Centre.

Back by popular demand, emcee Malcolm stirred everyone with his activities and jokes while the 8-course dinner was being served. During an activity, our new members displayed their creativity by dancing blindfolded. Others danced and sang to Joan Jett's 'I Hate Myself for Loving You' and Bon Jovi's 'It's My Life'. To add on to the excitement, 50 lucky draw prizes were given, ranging from vouchers to a 41" Toshiba Smart TV.

The entire evening was filled with food, speeches, interactive activities and lucky draw prizes. It was a night to be remembered.
