

RE : Toddler's Kind Gesture

Despite working under the hot sun, there was something that motivated these workers to look forward to each day.

Every morning for a month, two-year old Lian Tian En would give sweets to our workers outside his Paya Lebar terraced home. His action attracted the attention of the media when his father posted a photo of his son on Facebook. News of his kind and considerate gesture spread throughout with 228 likes followed by a write up in The Straits Times on June 1, 2013.

Amidst our busy lifestyle, this little boy has reminded us that love and generosity still exists!

Please click on the links below for the Straits Times (ST) article featured on Saturday, 1 June 2013 and the post on Facebook.

The Straits Times

View links below:

<http://www.straitstimes.com/breaking-news/singapore/story/boys-sweet-gesture-delights-construction-workers-20130601>

http://www.facebook.com/photo.php?fbid=672575036093302&set=a.163582796992531.50070.157253230958821&type=1&relevant_count=1