

RE : Cover of SME Magazine

Splashed over the cover of a business magazine, Mr Ong Hock Leong, our Managing Director, was featured in the November/December 2011 issue of The SME Magazine.

With the heading "Future Forward", the article talks about the rise of Swee Hong – how a local family-run construction firm goes head to head with large foreign companies, its successes, expectations, challenges and how Swee Hong prepares for the next era of construction.
